LETTER FROM THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

To the Maryland Legal Community:

The Editorial Board of the University of Baltimore Law Forum, Vol. 46, proudly presents the first issue of the 2015-2016 academic year. As the University of Baltimore School of Law's oldest journal, the Law Forum publishes scholarly articles, student comments, and recent developments in Maryland law each year. This volume reflects the Law Forum's continued commitment to scholastic achievement.

In this issue, the scholarly article, co-authored by Khyla D. Craine, Esq. and Glenn E. Martin, reviews changes in Maryland law concerning individuals re-entering society following a criminal conviction. The student comment, authored by Andrew Middleman, subjects Baltimore City's juvenile curfew to an Equal Protection analysis. The recent development pieces, authored by Law Forum staff editors, examine eight of this past year's most interesting cases decided by the Court of Appeals of Maryland and are intended to keep Maryland practitioners and the legal community informed on the state of the law in Maryland.

Production of a scholarly journal such as the University of Baltimore Law Forum is a tremendous undertaking and would not be possible without the substantial contributions of the student editorial board. The production process for this issue was well underway before the start of the 2015-2016 academic year and continued with urgency through the fall semester, culminating in this final product. I want to thank the entire Law Forum staff for their time and effort, as well as their diligence and attention to detail. I also wish to thank Professor Elizabeth J. Samuels, faculty advisor to the Law Forum, for her guidance and encouragement.

On behalf of the University of Baltimore Law Forum, we thank the members of the Maryland legal community, our readers, for their continued support.

Sincerely,

Patrick F. Toohey
Editor-in-Chief
